Art Unit: 1746

1. Claims 1-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Re claim 1 line 1, and claim 10 line 1, the phrase, "of the type" is without proper antecedent basis.

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1, 2, 4-6 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Saltz in view of Japan 2-284682.

Re claim 1, Saltz is cited disclosing a soot blower comprising a drive assembly, a drive motor, a lance with a rotational drive and drive train that differs from the claim only in the recitation of the non-circular gears. Japan'682 is cited disclosing the non-circular gears for a spray cleaning means. It therefore would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to modify the device of Saltz, to employ non-circular gears as taught by Japan'682, for the purpose of providing a more uniform treatment. Re claim 2, Japan'683, discloses the constant rotational speed. Re claims 4 and 5, Japan'682 discloses the elliptical gears. Re claim 6, Japan'682 inherently discloses the maximum and minimum drive ratios as claimed. Re claim 8, Saltz discloses the rotational lance. Re claim 9, Saltz discloses the retractable lance.

Art Unit: 1746

4. Claims 10-16 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action.
5. Claims 3 and 7 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. In Stout, Budzinski, Kufrin, Walendowski, Cornelio, note the gear means.
